GENERAL RULES

1. Official Brahman Show Catalogue

A Catalogue with the latest official details will be supplied to the show, provided that:

- i. if the enclosed entry form is submitted at least one month before the show by fax or e-mail to the Brahman office;
- ii. the cut-off date used for the calculation of age for each Class will be the first day of the show month and must be submitted to the Brahman Office;
- iii. Individual Class Entry R150.00 (VAT inclusive)
- iv. no entry fees will be refunded after the closing date. Brahman Society, Brahman Bank Account, Standard Bank, Account number 0411 76871, branch code 055534;
- v. entry fees are payable with registration to The Brahman Breeders Society.

2. Unofficial catalogue

If the show society prepares its own catalogue, the following MUST appear on the front page: “Particulars not checked by Brahman Society”.

3. Judges

Will be nominated by the Brahman Society. Details will be forwarded to the show committee. The Brahman Society contact person is Sietze Smit, nr. 083 712 9965, or the Brahman Office.

4. Identification and ownership

No animal without official identification in the ear and, if older than 15 months, without the official brand, will be allowed in the ring. If a purchased animal is not yet transferred to the exhibitor making the entry, the animal will be rejected.

5. Show society rules

Exhibitors must comply with all veterinary regulations, transport permits and other show affairs. CA and TB certificates must be send to the office on/or before 12 August 2015.

6. Red and grey classes

If more than 30 red or grey Brahmans are entered, red and grey MAY be judged separate.

7. Pregnancy and fertility

Females which reached the age of 30 months at judging day must be certified in calf or should have calved already (submission of a birth notification serves as proof). Heifers from 24 to 30 months need not be certified, but if certified in calf, it will be to their advantage.

Pregnancy tests must be carried out by a vet and such certification must be presented to the Brahman Technical Advisor (TA) before judging. The TA will forward these certificates to the office for filing.

8. Calving dates

Only calving dates (birth notification) which were submitted to the office in time, will be considered. Flushings will be considered if submitted via the official "Schedule O" form.

9. Calves

A cow without a calf or which is not in calf, will not be judged.

10. Animal younger than 8 months

No animal younger than 8 months will be allowed or entered at the show.

11. Maximum number of entries

No restriction will be placed on the number of animals entered by a Breeder.

12. Super Cow, Breedplan Male, as well as Breedplan Female will NOT participate in the Championships.

NON-HALTER TRAINED SHOW RULES

1. The presentation of Non Halter tame shows will be known as “CHALLENGE” in order to distinguish it from halter tame shows. Example: Swartruggens “CHALLENGE” 2017 or National “CHALLENGE” 2017.
2. The National “CHALLENGE” should be presented parallel with the National Championships.
3. The Society’s show rules will be applicable except in cases where it is directly and logically in conflict with halter tame show rules.
4. All handlers in kraals to be dressed in accordance with the rules.
5. The Judges Policy of the Society will be applicable
6. Grey and red animals to be judged separately. A minimum of 30 animals per type is needed to show separately. Less than 30 entries per typed must be showed together.
7. Judges to be appointed by the Society.
8. If logistically expedient, entries may be limited.
9. No animal may participate at the same show in both the halter trained and the non-halter trained classes.
  - (a) No animal entered in a halter trained class may be entered in the non-halter trained classes in all future shows.
  - (b) An exhibitor may show different animals in the halter trained and non-halter trained classes at the same show.
10. Group classes are not presented.
11. Only three placings are made
12. In order to ensure a smooth flow animals to be judged are held in single holding pens outside of the arena. Animals will enter the arena in accordance with entry numbers to be painted on the relevant animal. At least 5 must be available. (Holding pens to be marked with a “W” {Waiting pens})
13. The arena must be at least 18m X 18m.
14. The arena will consist of six pens lined up directly adjacent to the judging ring. The placings made by the judge to be placed in the pens. Animals will be brought into the arena one by one as indicated by the judge and will then be judged. After placement and at the discretion of the judge, animals placed lower down will be moved one pen lower down, with the animals in pen 6 leaving the arena.

15. Pens for animals to participate in the championships are erected close to the judging ring to ease the availability of animals for judging. At least eight pens must be available and marked “K” {Championships}
16. Poor temperament – Animals that are difficult to control will be disqualified.
17. Animals that are not show ready will be disqualified and not be allowed in the arena. The decision of the Technical official or other officially appointed person is final.
18. As circumstances may predict judges will screen animals beforehand to be allowed to enter the arena.
19. It is the sole responsibility of the exhibitor to ensure that animals entered be at the holding pen in time for the relevant class. The exhibitor’s handlers must, after judging, return the animal to the pen or if necessary, to the waiting pen for the championships.
20. No animal may be handled with a halter at any stage, irrespective of it being halter tame or not. This is applicable for the full duration of the animal being at the show venue.
21. Animals are measured and weighed
22. Animals are scanned. The norms still to be determined as soon as parameters had been set.
23. Organising committees to apply to the Society for a CHALLENGE well in advance.
24. The arena to be manned by two ring stewards as well one to let animals in and out of the arena.
